01/31/2024 Tom Cotton questioned TikTok's CEO Show Chew that In April 2021, saying that while he was the CFO of ByteDance, the CCP controlled Internet Investment Fund purchased 1% stake of ByteDance's main subsidiary ByteDance Technology Company. In return for that so-called 1% golden share, the party took one of three board seats at that subsidiary company. The next day, which was on May 1, 2021, Chew was appointed the CEO of TikTok. Of course, it is not a coincidence. #tiktok #ccp
